

K-love radio supplies me with family friendly radio. As an American I choose to listen to them and taking them off the air would take that right away from me. They are giving the public a service and the public has that right to listen to them. Please do not let LPFM take over current FM translator service. Thank you.